INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors,
University of Florida Development Corporation:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the University of Florida Development Corporation, a component unit of the University of Florida, as of and for the years ended June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the University of Florida Development Corporation's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

University of Florida Development Corporation management's is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University of Florida Development Corporation as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in its net position and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis on pages 3 through 5 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 15, 2019 on our consideration of the University of Florida Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the University of Florida Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
JUNE 30, 2019 AND 2018

Introduction

Management's Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) provides a financial performance review that is designed to focus on the financial activities, resulting changes, and currently known facts for the fiscal years ended on June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017, of the University of Florida Development Corporation (UFDC) and blended component unit Innovation Square, LLC, herein referred to as the "Organization." The MD&A should be read in conjunction with the accompanying presented financial statements.

Overview of the Financial Statements and Financial Analysis

The financial section of this report consists of three parts: MD&A (this section), the financial statements, and notes to the financial statements.

The Organization's financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applied to an enterprise fund using an accrual basis of accounting. Under this basis, revenues are recognized in the period in which they are earned, and expenses are recognized in the period in which they are incurred.

Included in the financial statements are the statements of net position, the statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net position, the statements of cash flows, and the related notes.

Financial Analysis of the Organization

Statements of Net Position

The statements of net position reflect the assets and liabilities of the Organization, using the accrual basis of accounting, and present the financial position of the Organization at a specified time. Assets less liabilities equal net position, which is one indicator of the Organization's current financial condition. The changes in net position that occur over time indicate improvement or deterioration in the Organization's financial condition.

The following schedule summarizes the Organization's statements of net position as of June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017:

	2019	2018	2017

Capital Assets

At June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017, respectively, the Organization had $13,782,283, $13,509,758, and $13,027,940 in capital assets, less accumulated depreciation of $4,093,883, $3,389,768, and $2,743,183 for net capital assets of $9,688,400, $10,119,990, and $10,284,757. Depreciation charges for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017, totaled $704,115, $646,585, and $663,435, respectively.

Please refer to the notes to financial statements for additional explanation.

Statements of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Net Position

The statements of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position present the Organization's revenue and expense activity, categorized as operating, and nonoperating. Revenues and expenses are recognized when earned or incurred, regardless of when cash is received or paid. The Organization functions as a single enterprise fund. The primary source of operating revenues was from rental income, which accounted for 94% of operating revenues in fiscal years 2019 and 100% of operating revenues in fiscal years 2018 and 2017. The increase in operating expenses in 2019 was mainly due to increased professional fees and repairs and maintenance. The increase in nonoperating expenses in 2019 is due to the buyout of the remaining interest that Shands held in Innovation Square, LLC.

The following summarizes the Organization's activity for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017:

	2019	2018	2017
Operating revenues	$ 1,888,946	$ 1,616,749	$ 1,455,599
Operating expenses	(2,285,639)	(2,238,989)	(2,021,996)
Operating loss	(396,693)	(622,240)	(566,397)
Nonoperating revenues (losses)	(4,444,000)	-	1,345,000
Increase (decrease) in net position	$ (4,840,693)	$ (622,240)	$ 778,603

Statements of Cash Flows

The statements of cash flows provide information about the Organization's financial results by reporting the major sources and uses of cash. This information will assist in evaluating the Organization's ability to generate net cash flows, its ability to meet its financial obligations as they come due, and its need for external financing. Cash flows from operating activities show the net cash provided by (used in) the operating activities of the Organization. Cash flows from capital and related financing activities include cash provided by and cash used in the acquisition of capital assets.

Economic Outlook

Innovation Square, a 25-acre development that bridges the main University of Florida (University) campus and downtown Gainesville, FL, will incorporate retail, commercial, residential, and office space, and is planned as a "new urbanist" development to appeal to the growing cadre of citizens who desire an in town experience for work and residence. This urban neighborhood will also accommodate spin-off companies primarily from University research and serve as a home for companies recruited to Gainesville nationally and internationally.

The outlook for this development is positive, with interest by developers and companies hoping to locate near the University. Innovation Square has attracted a number of new companies and, along with its community stakeholders, continues to recruit nationwide. Roads, utility infrastructure, and a park have been completed and will enable further development to proceed more smoothly. The steady recovery of the economy from the recession will aid in the ongoing development of the project. Job growth, one of the primary drivers of new development of both non-student residential and commercial buildings, has been notoriously missing since the recession, which has slowed the overall development of the area. As the employment market recovers, development is expected to accelerate in Innovation Square. The lack of viable commercial alternatives in the in-town area will make Innovation Square, with development ready parcels, the most attractive alternative.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2019 AND 2018

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies of the University of Florida Development Corporation (UFDC) and its blended component unit, Innovation Square, LLC, herein collectively referred to as the “Organization,” which affect the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization is a discretely presented component unit of the University of Florida (the “University”) and is to be included in the University’s Annual Financial Report (AFR).

(a) Reporting entity—UFDC is a not-for-profit entity organized March 28, 2011, for the purpose of promoting the educational mission and purposes of the University and promoting, managing, assisting, and developing research in the sciences, technology, business, architecture, agriculture, engineering, and any other fields that further such mission and educational purposes and promote economic development. UFDC is a direct-support organization of the University as defined by Section 1004.28, Florida Statutes.

On August 13, 2012, Shands Teaching Hospital and Clinics, Inc. (“Shands”) formed Innovation Square, LLC, a manager-managed, limited liability company for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes and exclusively to further the charitable purposes of its members, UFDC and Shands. On October 18, 2012, UFDC made a contribution of cash to the capital of Innovation Square. Shands had a 77.3% ownership and UFDC had a 22.7% ownership of Innovation Square. The members of Innovation Square, LLC’s governing board are identical to those of UFDC’s governing board, and UFDC is the managing member and vested with operational responsibility of Innovation Square, LLC. Innovation Square, LLC is a blended component unit of UFDC. On December 11, 2018, UFDC purchased from Shands its 22.7% to obtain 100% ownership of Innovation Square. Transactions between UFDC and Innovation Square, LLC have been eliminated from the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization is reported as a special-purpose entity engaged in business-type activities.

(b) Measurement focus, basis of accounting, and financial statement presentation—The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Under these methods, revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recognized when they are incurred.

The Organization distinguishes operating revenues and expenses from nonoperating and other items. Operating revenues are those revenues that are generated from the primary operations of the Organization. All other revenues are reported as nonoperating revenues. Operating expenses are those expenses that are essential to the primary operations of the Organization. All other expenses are reported as nonoperating expenses.

The Organization follows GASB Statement No. 34, Basic Financial Statements – and Management’s Discussion and Analysis – for State and Local Governments, which establishes financial reporting standards for state and local governments, including states, cities, towns, villages, and special-purpose governments such as school districts and public utilities and GASB Statement No. 35, Basic Financial Statements – and Management’s Discussion and Analysis – for Public Colleges and Universities, an amendment to GASB Statement No. 34 for public colleges and universities to allow the use of the guidance for special-purpose governments engaged only in business-type activities, engaged only in governmental activities, or engaged in both governmental and business-type activities in their separately issued reports.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents—The Organization considers all short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition to be cash equivalents.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(d) Capital assets—Capital assets are stated at cost. Costs of $2,000 or more are capitalized, and expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed in the period incurred. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets using the straight-line method. The useful lives of these assets range from 5 to 25 years. When items of equipment and other property are sold or retired, the related costs and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in income. Capital assets donated are reported at fair value at the time of the donation; however, capital assets donated by related organizations are recorded based on the net book value of these assets in the accounting records of the related organization on the date of donation.

(e) Income taxes—UFDC is a not-for-profit corporation established under the laws of the State of Florida and is generally exempt from income taxes under provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. Innovation Square, LLC, is a Florida limited liability corporation. While Innovation Square, LLC is not a tax-exempt entity, it carries out its business activities in a manner consistent with the charitable, education and scientific purposes of its members, both of which are not-for-profit corporations organized under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and are exempt or have applied to be exempt from federal taxation. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

UFDC and Innovation Square, LLC file tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. UFDC and Innovation Square, LLC have reviewed and evaluated the relevant technical merits of each of their tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, and determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements of UFDC and Innovation Square, LLC. The Organization's income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities, and may change upon examination.

(f) Use of estimates—The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(g) Accounts receivable—Accounts receivable, which represent unpaid rent and amounts due for reimbursement of construction costs, are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. No amounts due at June 30, 2019 or 2018 are considered to be uncollectible.

(h) Revenue recognition—The Organization recognizes revenue in the period in which revenue is earned.

(i) Unearned revenue—Current unearned revenues arise from receipt of rental income prior to the period earned. The unearned revenues are recognized as revenue in the period in which revenue is earned.

(11) Contingencies:

As of June 30, 2019, UFDC is currently in dispute with the County on the $50,000 property tax refund received during the fiscal year on whether it needs to be paid back to the County. In addition, UFDC is in negotiation with University of Florida Information Technology (“UF IT”) on reimbursing the amount provided by UF IT for their property taxes.

(12) Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements:

GASB issued Statement No. 87, Leases, in June 2017. GASB 87 aims to better meet the information needs of financial statement users by improving accounting and financial reporting for leases by governments. The provisions in GASB 87 are effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The Organization is currently evaluating the impact this statement will have on its financial statements.

GASB issued Statement No. 89, Interest Cost in Construction, in June 2018. GASB 89 was made to enhance the comparability of information about capital assets and the cost of borrowing for a reported period, and aims to simplify accounting for interest cost incurred before the end of a construction period. The provisions in GASB 89 are effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The Organization is currently evaluating the impact this statement will have on its financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors,
University of Florida Development Corporation:

We have audited in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of University of Florida Development Corporation (UFDC) which comprise the statements of net position as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net position and cash flows for the years ended and the related notes to the financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated October 15, 2019.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered UFDC's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of UFDC's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of UFDC's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit, we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

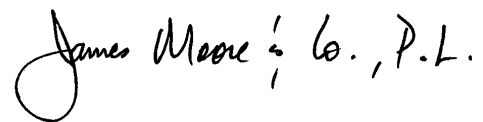

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether UFDC's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of This Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of UFDC's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Governmental Auditing Standards in considering UFDC's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
