UBIT Reminder

Auxiliary Accounting is here to help

- Before you sign an agreement or start a new revenue-generating activity, reach out to us for guidance.
- We have the expertise and campus connections to help address multiple concerns such as legal, procurement, accounting, billing, and taxes.

UBIT Reminder

Throughout the presentation, when we say an activity is subject or not subject to tax, we are referring only to unrelated business income tax (UBIT).

Although some activities may be exempt from UBIT, they may still be subject to other taxes, such as Florida Sales and Use Tax.

Providing Tax, Audit, Accounting & Controllership, HR Solutions, Technology Solutions, Wealth Management Services, Corporate Training & Business Adviww.jmoc.com | Info@jmoc.com

UBIT

- The University of Florida is tax-exempt as an instrumentality of the State of Florida
 - Exempt purposes of state colleges and universities include all the purposes and functions described in Code Section 501(c)(3)
 - For Federal income tax purposes, the University may engage in certain activities

UBIT Defined

"Income from a trade or business, regularly carried on, that is not substantially related to the charitable, educational or other purpose that is the basis of the organization's exemption."

The following criteria must be present:

- 1. A trade or business
- 2. Regularly carried on
- 3. Not substantially related

Providing Tax, Audit, Accounting & Controllership, HR Solutions, Technology Solutions, Wealth Management Services, Corporate Training & Business Adv way, Imac.com | info@jimac.com

#1 - Is your activity a trade or business?

"Trade or business" – Any activity carried on for the production of income by selling goods or performing services.

- While the University/department is carrying on its daily exempt functions, it could also be carrying on unrelated activities that are taxable.
- Note, only UF sales or services to customers outside of the UFLOR Business Unit (external sales) may be taxable. Internal sales are exempt.

- Important Factor To Consider -Does A Profit Motive Exist?

#2 - Is your activity regularly carried on?

Regularly carried on – activities show a frequency and continuity and are pursued in a manner similar to comparable commercial activities of nonexempt organizations

> Key: Consider the frequency in which a for-profit entity operates.

If an activity is typically conducted yearround by a for-profit entity, the same activity conducted by UF for a few weeks will not be considered "regularly carried on."

Providing Tax, Audit, Accounting & Controllership, HR Solutions, Technology Solutions, Wealth Management Services, Corporate Training & Business Advisc www.jmco.com | Info@jmco.com

#3 - Is your activity not substantially related?

- Related to University Exempt Purpose
 - To be related to the University's educational or research exempt purpose, there must be a substantial causal relationship.
 - The activity must contribute importantly to the accomplishment of the exempt purpose (not simply to produce needed income for the University.)
- Size & Extent
 - Particular emphasis is placed on the size and extent of the activity.
 - If an activity is conducted on a scale larger than reasonably necessary to carry out the exempt purpose, it is more likely to be treated as unrelated.
- Dual Use of Assets & Facilities
 - Use for both exempt and commercial purposes will not automatically exempt income generated from commercial use, unless the activity "contributes importantly" to the accomplishment of UF's exempt purposes.

11

Substantially Related Income

- Factual Question: Is there a direct relationship between the activity and accomplishment of UF's exempt purposes?
- New revenue-generating activities at UF are reviewed to ensure consistency with exempt purposes and the potential for UBI.
- Just because an activity raises needed funds for the University/department does not mean that activity is considered exempt.

Providing Tax, Audit, Accounting & Centrollership, HR Solutions, Technology Solutions, Wealth Management Services, Corporate Training & Rusiness Advaws,moc.com | Info@pinoc.com

Substantially Related Income

- Substantially Related:
 - Depends on facts & circumstances
 - Factors that the IRS and courts have relied on in concluding that an activity is not substantially related:
 - Fees charged to the general public are comparable to commercial facilities;
 - Only those who purchase the goods or services benefit, and the benefit is in direct proportion to the fees charged;
 - The organization furnishes and operates the facilities through its own employees who perform substantial services in providing the activity; and
 - Maximizing profit is a predominant element in conducting the activity by the exempt organization.

Advertising

The Center for Performing Arts produces a printed souvenir program that includes some sponsor recognition and potential advertising. This scenario is not considered "regularly carried on" and is exempt from taxation.

Grad Department's printed graduate student directory includes some sponsor recognitions. The material is reviewed to ensure that there is no call to action or other advertising characteristics.

 Auxiliary Accounting concludes that the sponsor information is a true sponsorship, is not regularly carried on, and lacks any defining advertising characteristics. Therefore, the sponsorship income is not taxable.

Bookstore - In general

- Incidental items of wearing apparel such as school uniforms, sweaters, hosiery, handkerchiefs, etc., and

Bookstore

Most items sold at the UF Bookstore are excludable as either educational, UF logo items, or items that fall under the convenience to university members exception.

The sale of specific gift items (such as novelty items without a UF logo) is considered taxable.

33

Career Services

The UF Career Connections Center (C3) conducts various career fairs for students to network and have an opportunity for job placement. Since the state monitors the university on its student job placement effectiveness and because these services are being provided to students, they are related sales not subject to UBI taxation.

Note: These career fairs may be exempt from UBI tax, but they are still subject to Florida sales and use tax as a rental of real property to the prospective employers for their booths.

Equipment Rental

Water/Sporting equipment rentals at Lake Wauburg (Rec Sports) to students and staff are related and nontaxable.

Research equipment rental/use by faculty, researchers, and even external researchers is in support of UF's exempt research mission and nontaxable. UF also considers profit motive and use by other external users in making a tax determination.

35

Equipment Sales

UF Surplus Property conducts online auctions in support of UF's Strategic Plan and sustainability initiative.

UF equipment that is no longer needed is first made available to UF departments for free and then is disposed to the general public at auction.

These auction sales are nontaxable, since gains and losses from the sale or disposition of property are excluded from UBIT.

Facilities Usage (no lease)

The University Auditorium is rented to the general public for conferences and symposiums (educational events.) These events are considered related and are also eligible for the rental of real property exclusion. Income from these events is not taxable.

Note: Rentals made to UF departments are considered internal sales and are not subject to taxation.

The Baughman Center is rented to the general public for a wedding venue. The wedding event is unrelated and taxable.

37

Hotel Operations

UF Reitz Union Hotel room rentals by sports fans or those with no UF affiliation or related purpose are considered "general public" use and are taxable.

Hotel room rentals by potential students, the university community (faculty/staff/patients), interview participants, or coinciding with other academic purposes are related and nontaxable.

Entertainment Events

Phillips Center for the Performing Arts - Events conducted for the benefit of UF staff and students, as well as the general public, are in support of UF's educational purpose and mandated public service. These events are nontaxable. (UF students, faculty, or staff may also be participating in the actual performances.)

Each event (e.g. a professional entertainer/musician) is considered for student/faculty involvement, the manner in which it is conducted, and its contribution to UF's exempt purpose and mission.

39

Rents (lease basis)

UF Reitz Union maintains retail leases for service providers such as a bank and a barber shop for students and the campus community.

These real property leases are excluded from UBI, so long as rent is not based on a percentage of net income or profit.

There is also a stance that these services are provided primarily as a convenience to university members (students, faculty, staff, and patients.)

UBIT Takeaways

- There are a broad variety of revenue-generating activities conducted at UF, each of which must be considered for UBI.
- Remember the three criteria that must be met to have income subject to UBI tax:
 - 1. A trade or business
 - 2. Regularly carried on
 - 3. Not substantially related
- Unrelated business income is not discouraged. We just need to ensure that any resulting taxes are paid.
- Auxiliary Accounting is here to help Think ahead and contact us for assistance before starting any new activities.
